

Prunotto

I was very impressed with Prunotto's 2014 Barbarescos. These wines here have been under a state of evolution over the last few years as the move has been towards greater finesse and nuance. It will be interesting to see where things go in coming vintages, but these two wines certainly bode well for the future.

From 2014 Barbaresco: An October Surprise \(Oct 2017\) by Antonio Galloni

Vintage: 2014

Producer: Prunotto ▼

Name: Barbaresco

Score: 90

Author: Antonio Galloni

Drinking Window: 2018 - 2027

Release price: $45.00

Review Date: Oct 2017

Grape/Blend: Nebbiolo

Tasting Note: Prunotto's 2014 Barbaresco is an attractive wine to drink now and over the next few years. Sweet dried cherry, autumn leaves, dried herbs, orange zest, pine, mint and star anise are nicely lifted in this pretty, mid-weight Barbaresco from Prunotto. Drink it over the next decade or so.

Find it Online